

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO BIOLOGICAL SCIENCES

Workshop: Strengthening road traffic injury statistics: Addressing discrepancies in official statistics and global statistical models (GBD and GSRRS)

When: Sunday 27th November 2022, 9 am – 10:30 am

Where: Riverbank Room 4, Adelaide Convention Center, Adelaide.

Host: Kavi Bhalla (kavibhalla@uchicago.edu), University of Chicago, USA

Program

1. Findings of the World Bank-UChicago Report

- Introduction to the project (Kavi Bhalla, University of Chicago)
- Availability of data sources for estimating road traffic deaths (Sudeshna Mitra, World Bank Global Road Safety Facility)
- Estimates of road traffic injuries in Cambodia, Ethiopia, and Tanzania (Kazuyuki Neki, World Bank Global Road Safety Facility)
- Other measurement issues & conclusions (Kavi Bhalla, University of Chicago)
- Questions & Answers

2. Panel Discussion: Measurement of the global burden of non-fatal injuries

- Moderator: James Harrison, Flinders University
- Panelists
 - Erin Hamilton, IHME, University of Washington
 - Kidist Bartolomeos, World Health, Organization
 - Belinda Gabbe, Monash University
 - Ted Miller, Pacific Institute on Research and Evaluation
 - Kirsten Vallmuur, Queensland University of Technology
 - Angela Watson, Queensland University of Technology