

Global Health Advocacy Incubator

Changing Policies to Save Lives

Building Sustainable National Drowning Prevention Programs in Vietnam and Bangladesh

November 28, 4-5:30pm

Join the Global Health Advocacy Incubator for a panel discussion on national child drowning prevention programs in Bangladesh and Vietnam. Program partners - including government officials, technical experts and civil society organizations - will discuss key elements of sustainable national programs, including how to move to full country ownership, making these programs sustainable and effective for years to come.

www.advocacyincubator.org